Connecting Your H3 espresso

1. Connect to your TV

Use the HDMI cable supplied to connect your H3 espresso to your TV.

2. Connect to the internet

Connect your H3 espresso to the broadband router using an Ethernet cable (not supplied) for the best possible speeds.

Router too far? Alternatively you can connect wirelessly using your home Wi-Fi.

Note:

- The best way to connect your box to the internet is with an Ethernet cable. This ensures the best possible speeds your router can provide.
- Your FVP recorder and H3 espresso should be connected to the same network for Multi-room entertainment.

3. Powering on

Plug the end of AC adaptor supplied in to the DC IN port at the back of H3 espresso. Then connect the AC power adapter to the wall socket.
